New pixolo app successfully launched

Frankfurt, 19.12.2023

Two weeks before Christmas pixolo app has been launched in the app stores and already has top ratings and a high ranking in the Apple and Android charts.

pixolo is the app to design your own pictures according to your personal style and have them delivered to your home as a high-quality, individual photo product.

In just a few steps, the most beautiful memories are transformed into wall pictures, photos, photo books, posters, calendars and more.
The innovative user interface makes it easy to design personalized products in just a few clicks due to an integrated AI tool.
The resulting creations are produced exclusively in Germany in compliance with high quality standards and then packaged and shipped with love. In this way, a loving memento finds its way into a new home, for yourself or your loved ones.

Exclusive pixolo products

In addition to well-known items as simple photo prints, posters, canvases and photo books, pixolo also offers exclusive products with a focus on individuality and flexibility.
The individual items build on each other and can be ideally combined.
Whether Frame Boxes for the wall in combination with the magnetic passe-partout Frame Cards, the pixolo Instant Book, the calendar clipboard or the photo magnets - the pictures in all products can be easily exchanged at a later date.
This makes it possible to design truly unique and creative souvenirs.

How pixolo works

- Select product: Wall pictures, photos, photo books, posters, magnets, calendars and more
- Upload pictures directly from your iPhone, Instagram, Facebook, Google Photos or Dropbox
- Personalize your product with many design options
- Unfinished creations are automatically saved so that they can be finished at a later date at any time
- Payment is made securely via Apple Pay, Google Pay, Paypal, Klarna or with a credit/debit card
- The order will be carefully packed with love and then sent to your specified address

pixolo INSTANT

In addition to the pixolo app, the pixolo Instant app has also been launched.

With this app, designed photo products can be printed directly at one of the many cooperation partners from the retail sector.

The system is available at hundreds of locations in Europe, enabling the images to be printed immediately.

With pixolo, memories become something unique!
